Delegate to Supreme Ruling, which meets in Washington in May, Rev. H.-M. Hope; Alternate, John E. Burke. The members of the Grand Ruling par-took of a banquet to-night, tendered by the local fraternity. The attendance on the meetings of the Petersburg Episcopal Convocation, now in session at St. Paul's church, in this city, is large, especially at night. To-day's session of the body was devoted in great measure to missionary services, in which the Ladies' Auxiliary took prominent part. Addresses were delivered by Miss L. L. Taylor, of Norfolk, and Kev. J. Lindsay Patton, missionary to Japan, and the speakers were heard with great attention. A great deal of business touching the interests and welfare of the churches throughout the convocation 1 mits is being transacted. The sermon
